

ASSEMBLÉE INTERNATIONALE 2009

---

Wim Broeckx

Artistic Director, The Royal Conservatory

Wim Broeckx enjoyed a long and successful performing career with four international ballet companies, most notably Dutch National Ballet, where he rose to become Principal Dancer and, eventually, Assistant Artistic Director.

In 2002, he was appointed Director of the Dance Department of the Royal Conservatoire in The Hague. He is known and respected throughout the dance community for his commitment to the healthy and responsible training of young dancers, and his determination to promote ballet and ensure its recognition as a profession.

Since 2008, Wim Broeckx has held the position of Artistic President of the Prix de Lausanne, with whom he has a long history. He was a finalist at the competition in 1980 and returned to take part in the entr'acte during the Gala Performance celebrating the 20th anniversary in 1993. He has, in recent years, served on three occasions as a member of the competition's jury.
