

Fête d'Or – Canada's National Ballet School's 50th Anniversary Gala

On a winter's night, Canada's National Ballet School presented its 21st annual fundraising gala, Fête d'Or, commemorating the school's 50th anniversary. The fete also honoured Joan and Jerry Lozinski, Patrons of the Arts, and Mavis Staines, Artistic Director of Canada's National Ballet School.

A night of dance and glamour, guests enjoyed an inspiring repertoire by students from Canada's National Ballet School. They performed a collection with influences spanning the globe, with their talent evident of Mavis Staines' tutelage. The night also included cocktails, gourmet dinner, dancing and live auction. The gala was an elegant and amazing evening, and surpassed their fundraising goal of $800,000 – they raised over $930,000! For more information about the fundraiser and the National Ballet School, visit www.nbs-enb.ca.

Honorees Terry and Joan Lozinski, patrons of the arts, philanthropists and stalwarts of the community.

Braden and Ashley, decked out in gold!

Katrina and Claudia have a blast raising funds for a good cause!

Steven and Nancy Peters with Jennifer Bassett.

Gathered together, the Bowser family poses on the red carpet.

Elyse, Bob and Michelle smile beautifully for the camera.

Sylvia, Mary, Eileen, Gwen and Barbara are an elegant group!

Mary, Rob, Alodie and Bob.

Kim, Duncan and Tess came in the colours of the National Ballet's golden anniversary!

Marie, Neil and Cynthia (Chair of the Gala Committee) are elegantly dressed and poised for the night ahead.

Silvio and Vivianna from Dominion Lending.